

RIDING OUT, AND IT'S SURE NOT TURE...

PICTURE SPECIAL ANDY HOOPER

WITH his soft sand and stunning views of the sea, you can see why Britain's equitation stars love riding their horses for long gallops along Exmouth beach. Whipped up with and woven up a crisp winter's morning, six of the country's best and best-known dressage riders, including showman ANDY HOOPER (far back, looking toward the sea above), dress up to right about it. Hooper was joined by Woking Club National Secretary Cheryl Smith when the Bugan, international event and dressage rider John Hughes, showjump starlet Emily King, Emily's mother Lucy (she has eight), a new set of Olympic medals, Scotland's best hunter rider Peter and double Olympic medal winner and former world No. 1 British top FEI Lutz (not right), his two sons David (one gold medal at the European Championships) and his brother the British 10 mile lover.
